Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on a motion for attorney’s fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act (“EAJA”). See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(a), (d) (West 1994 & West Supp. 2005). Cheril L. Rhodes (“Rhodes”) seeks attorney’s fees for services rendered in the above-captioned social security action in the amount of Twelve Thousand Fifty-six Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($12,056.25) (calculated at $125.00 per hour times 96.45 attorney hours).¹ The Commissioner does not object to the request for attorney’s fees.

¹Rhodes actually requested “Twelve Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty-six ($12,056.00) dollars to [be awarded to] the Plaintiff’s attorney calculated at the rate of $125.00 per hour for 96.45 hours of work on this case in Federal Court.” (Mot. Attorney’s Fees at 3.) Obviously, there is a discrepancy between the amount written out and the number given in parenthesis. Further, when one multiplies the rate, $125.00, by 96.45, the result is $12,056.25. Rhodes has provided documentation supporting an award of $12,056.25, and the court assumes that Rhodes merely made typographical and arithmetical errors in her motion.

Therefore, it is

ORDERED that the plaintiff is awarded a fee in the amount of Twelve Thousand Fifty-six Dollars and Twenty-five Cents ($12,056.25).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
